

I have XM radio because I like the programing and no advertisments, I don't want to be told what I have to listen to, so I pay for that right. Because XM is making money the rest of the broadcasters are mad, when XM had advertisments and was not making so much money the other broadcasters did not say BOO. Leave them alone and let US have the radio we choose.

John Luther